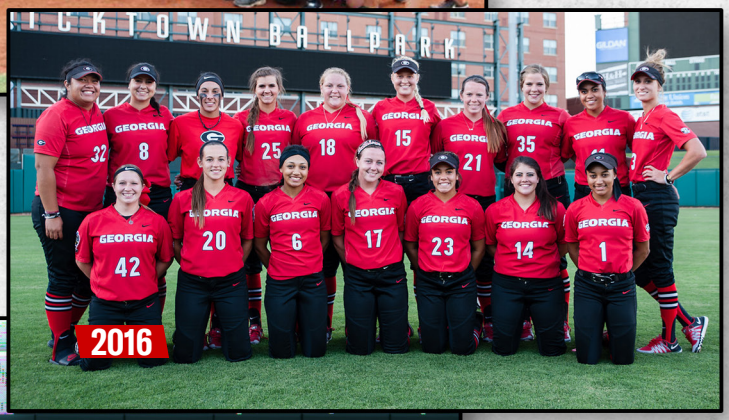
SEC SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT 2014

Entering its 26th seasons of existence, the Georgia softball program has made noise across the collegiate softball landscape. From five Women's College World Series appearances to three Southeastern Conference titles, Georgia has established itself a winning tradition.

Since the 1997 inaugural season, the Bulldogs have accumulated 1,073 wins, including 353 in SEC action. A majority of those wins came under the helm of Lu Harris-Champer, who collected 959 in her 21 years in the Classic City. Georgia had 40-win seasons in 17 of the 20 years under Harris-Champer, including seven of those with 50 or more victories.

The winning doesn't stop when the regular season ends but carries on into postseason action. Hot bats and clutch pitching propelled Georgia to a second-place finish in the SEC and trips to the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010. In 2014, the Bulldogs brought home the SEC Tournament crown after defeating Kentucky in the Championship Game. The team chemistry of the 2016 squad carried the Bulldogs to Oklahoma City. For the second time in three seasons, Georgia appeared in OKC in 2018, sweeping its way through the Athens Regional and Super Regional in 2018. In Harris-Champer's final season, the Bulldogs made an improbable run to Oklahoma City as an unseeded team.

The past 19 years have seen Georgia in an NCAA Regional while appearing in 11 Super Regionals, with 74 wins in the program's NCAA Championship history.



Georgia's winning tradition doesn't just stem from the Bulldogs accomplishments in regular-season games, but from what it has achieved when those are over.

The Bulldogs' have made themselves a mainstay in NCAA Championship action, making it to an NCAA Regional in each of the past 19 seasons. Its stellar track record in the postseason puts Georgia as one of 14 teams in the nation to appear in a Regional for 19 or more straight years. Within that realm, Georgia is one of three Southeastern Conference teams to produce such success.

Georgia isn't just a staple in Regional fields, but also into the next round, appearing in 11 Super Regionals since 2005.

The pinnacle of college softball is in Oklahoma City, and Georgia made back-to-back showings at the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010, finishing as one of the last four teams standing in both. The Bulldogs returned in 2016 after knocking off back-to-back National Champion Florida in dramatic walk-off fashion in the Super Regional. After sweeping the NCAA Regional and Super Regional in Athens, the Bulldogs punched their ticket to OKC in 2018 for the fourth program appearance at the WCWS. The Bulldogs turned a rocky end of the 2021 season around and made a run to Oklahoma City as an unseeded team, shutting out No. 4 Florida on its home field in the Super Regional round.

The consistency that the Bulldogs have shown reaching postseason play has planted the program as one of the top teams in NCAA softball.

Bulldogs in the Pros

Former Bulldogs have made their presence known in the professional world, helping to grow the game across the nation. Overall, 18 Bulldogs have gone on to play ball after their collegiate careers. Since 2007, 14 Georgia players have been selected in the National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) Draft.

With the 2020 NPF season put on hold, the advent of Athletes Unlimited brought a new perspective to the game of softball. With opportunities to score individual points on every play, along with points for team wins and MVP honors, every moment counts in an AU game. Former Bulldog great Megan Wiggins concluded the season 35th out of 63 players in 2021 with 1,054 total points.

In the 2019 season, Georgia had three past athletes represented on an NPF roster. Kristyn Sandberg, along with Alyssa DiCarlo, teamed up with then Georgia assistant coach Rachele Fico on the Chicago Bandits, who finished runners-up in the Championship Series. At the end of the season, Fico concluded her outstanding career, retiring from the NPF to focus on her coaching career.

All-NPF outfielder Megan Wiggins' ninth season in the league was spent with the USSSA Pride. Wiggins helped guide the Pride to a Cowles Cup Championship over the Bandits for the second season in a row. Following the 2018 season, Wiggins was invited to the USA Softball Women's National Team Trials in early January.

Infielder Alyssa DiCarlo became the latest ProDawg after being drafted by the Bandits as the fourth-overall pick in the 2019 NPF Draft. DiCarlo appeared in 32 games, hitting .274 with a .479 slugging percentage as a rookie. She knocked three home runs with six doubles in 2019.

After two years in the NPF, infielder Alex Hugo guided the USA Baseball Women's National Team to a gold medal at the COPABE Women's Pan-American Championships in 2019. Hugo was named the MVP and later USA Baseball Sportswoman of the Year after leading Team USA in six offensive categories en route to the gold medal.

Jack Turner Stadium

JACK TURNER STADIUM

The Georgia softball team plays in a multi-million dollar softball stadium. The main grandstand holds approximately 1,400 fans while additional outfield seating was added in 2015. Jack Turner Stadium, named for the late Jack Turner, thanks in part to gifts from himself and his son Jimmy Turner, has been chosen to host 11 NCAA Regionals and five NCAA Super Regionals since the format began in 2006.

Both the Georgia and visiting team dugouts are connected via tunnel from the locker rooms. The Bulldogs' locker room area has all facilities located in it, including an athletic training room, players' lounge, game room, locker room, showers, as well as the coaches' offices and locker room. On the first base side, the visiting team has its locker room and showers along with the umpires' locker room. A state-of-the-art press box was built featuring suites for radio, television, media, and athletic administration. Georgia's stadium ranks among the nation's best and will continue to be an attractive site for NCAA postseason play for years to come.

JACK TURNER

Jack Turner was named to the University of Georgia Foundation Board of Trustees in 1999 where he served as a member of the Investment Committee. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1953 with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Finance and was a member of Chi Psi fraternity, the Air Force ROTC, and Gridiron. As an athlete, he was a letterman in both baseball and basketball.

Following graduation, he served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force, and after serving his country, embarked on a professional career in the financial services industry. Jack was president and retired as chairman of the board of American Funds Distributors, a subsidiary of the American Funds Group, based in Los Angeles in 1995.

What followed could not be characterized as a "quiet retirement." Jack dedicated much of his retirement years to the University of Georgia. His service included: Director of the Georgia Student Educational Fund (the forerunner to today's William C. Hartman Fund); Executive Committee member and director of the National Alumni Association; Member on the board of the UGA Athletic Association; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Finance Committee; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Facilities Committee; Chairman of the Georgia Athletic Association Student Athletic Scholarship Endowment Fund (through which Jack has endowed several scholarships); Founding member and partner in the President's Club; Member of the Heritage Society.

In addition, Jack founded the Turner Family Foundation, a private organization that supports local charities. In 1999, he was honored by the National Football Hall of Fame for his outstanding support of amateur football, and in 2002 was part of the inaugural class of inductees to the UGA Athletic Association's "Circle of Honor," honoring his service to the organization. The Terry College of Business honored him in 2002 as a "Distinguished Alumni" for his longtime service to the school.

The University of Georgia

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic, and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education.

The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785--just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President--the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

THE CITY OF ATHENS

Universally known as one of the nation's premier college towns, Athens is the perfect marriage of campus and community. Broad Street is all that separates the University of Georgia's historic North Campus and a vibrant downtown community filled with restaurants and shopping. Athens has carved its own identity with the individualistic pursuits of a music scene that has turned local artists into worldwide superstars.

Athens' ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide megabands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars from Taylor Swift to Snoop Dogg.

Season Outlook

The 2022 season brings the 26th edition of Georgia softball to Athens as well as the advent of the Tony Baldwin era. Baldwin was promoted to head coach in June 2021 after nine seasons on staff with the Bulldogs.

Baldwin's staff includes an NCAA national champion in J.T. D'Amico and a pair of Georgia greats in Chelsea Wilkinson and Alyssa DiCarlo. D'Amico will head up Georgia's defensive efforts and will serve as its recruiting coordinator. Wilkinson will coach the pitching staff and DiCarlo will serve as the volunteer coach, assisting with the offense.

There is a lot of excitement surrounding the softball program heading into the 2022 campaign, because of an experienced group of new coaches on staff, but also what the student-athletes return in experience. Georgia returns all nine members of its lineup from the previous season that saw the Bulldogs make a remarkable run to Oklahoma City and the Women's College World Series after finishing 11th in the Southeastern Conference. Seven members of Georgia's defensive alignment much of the season were student-athletes with freshman or sophomore classification.

Georgia's fifth year and senior classes feature a veteran group of five student-athletes. First baseman Lacey Fincher is Georgia's active leading hitter with a career .348 average with 30 home runs and 95 RBI to her name. Fincher and Savana Sikes have played all but three games of their careers together, each appearing in 143 games in the Red & Black. Fellow senior CJ Landrum brings over a hundred games of outfield experience in her career. In the circle, fifth-year senior Lauren Mathis has made over 70 appearances for the Bulldogs with 22 victories. Utility Mackenzie Puckett has made appearances behind the plate, in the outfield, and filled in as the designated player in her time in Athens.

A formidable junior class that includes Sydney Kuma, Sara Mosley, and Jaiden Fields, will all expect to see the starting lineup on opening day. The trio brings top defense and big bats to the starting nine. Combined, the three have driven in 150 runs in just two seasons in the Bulldog uniform.

The sophomore class is the largest chunk of Georgia's roster, carrying nine student-athletes, four of which were mainstays in the starting lineup and two that combined for 30 appearances in the circle in their rookie campaigns in 2021. Sydney Chambley and Jayda Kearney manned left and center, making highlight reel catches but were also key cogs in the offense, driving in 36 and 25 runs, respectively last season. Shortstop Ellie Armistead continued to grow in her position in the six hole and offensively as the season progressed. Over the summer, Armistead was named the Florida Gulf Coast League Defensive Player of the Year and helped the Sarasota Circus to an FGCL championship. Payden Bordeau stepped up early in the season and took over daily catching responsibilities, making 43 starts behind the dish.

In the circle, Madison Kerpics began the season making many appearances before dealing with a nagging injury that limited her time. Britton Rogers' time in the circle increased later in the season, taking the ball in big games down the stretch against Tennessee, Alabama, and three appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

The freshman class has already garnered national attention in the preseason. Catcher/first baseman Lyndi Rae Davis has been identified by Softball America as a top newcomer to watch in the SEC this season. Likewise, right-handed pitcher Kylie Macy was named one of 75 impact freshmen by D1Softball. Faith Barth will provide depth to the middle infield while pitchers Rebecca Muh and Sydney Osada will vie for time in circle.

2022 SCHEDULE

Georgia is scheduled to play a total of 37 games at Jack Turner Stadium this season. The full schedule features 12 teams that appeared in the 2021 NCAA Tournament and five teams that finished in the top 25 (Alabama, Missouri, LSU, Clemson, Tennessee).

The 55-game schedule begins in Orlando, Florida as part of a tournament hosted by the UCF Knights. The Bulldogs will officially kick off the season against the host Knights Feb. 10.

Georgia's home opener will feature the 15th Annual Red and Black Showcase Feb. 18-20, the first of three-straight tournaments at Jack Turner Stadium. The Red and Black Showcase will include Delaware, Boston, and Purdue in the 10-game tournament. The following weekend, Feb. 25-27, Bryant, North Carolina, and Georgia Southern come to Athens for the 19th Annual Georgia Classic. March begins with the 13th Annual Bulldog Classic March 4-6 when Ohio, Massachusetts, and App State come to Athens.

Southeastern Conference play opens on the road at South Carolina March 11-13. Georgia's conference bye week is the following week. The Bulldogs will host the UGA Classic at Jack Turner Stadium, playing host to Dartmouth, Illinois, and Mercer.

The Bulldogs' midweek non-conference opponents include Gardner-Webb (Feb. 23), Georgia State (March 9), Georgia Tech (March 15), Clemson (March 23), USC Upstate (April 20), and Furman (April 27).

SEC home series will include Texas A&M (March 25-27), Tennessee (April 8-10), LSU (April 22-24), and Ole Miss (May 6-8).

Georgia will be on the road for SEC series at South Carolina (March 11-13), Alabama (April 1-3), Missouri (April 14-16), and Auburn (April 29-May 1).

TONY BALDWIN

HEAD COACH

YEAR AT UGA	10th // First as Head Coach
ALMA MATER	Butler, 1995

@ UGACOACHTONY

Tony Baldwin was announced as the next head coach of Georgia softball on June 21, 2021. He is the third head coach in the history of the program. Baldwin has served on staff in Athens for nine total seasons prior to being promoted to head coach.

After serving as a Georgia volunteer assistant from 2011-12, Tony Baldwin rejoined the Bulldog coaching staff as an assistant coach in June 2014 before being promoted to associate head coach shortly after the 2016 season.

Georgia's offense has found successful production since Baldwin's arrival. The 2021 season saw the Bulldogs go on a remarkable run through the NCAA Tournament en route to Georgia's fifth program appearance in the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City. Georgia began the season winning 21 of its first 23 games including a series victory over Missouri to open Southeastern Conference play. A tough SEC schedule resulted in a 7-17 record in league play. Georgia's schedule as a whole finished as the fifth strongest in the country in 2021. The regular season was highlighted by a midweek win over top-ranked and then-undefeated Oklahoma in Athens. Despite ending the regular season on a seven-game losing streak, the Bulldogs came out in the NCAA Tournament ready to roll. Georgia defeated Western Kentucky and No. 13 seed Duke in the Athens Regional to win a date with fourth-seeded Florida in Gainesville. Georgia went on to shut out the Gators in back-to-back games in the Super Regional to punch its ticket to OKC. The Bulldogs concluded the tournament scoring 34 runs while slugging 11 home runs in seven games.

A trio of underclassmen including sophomore Sydney Kuma (All-Newcomer Team) and freshmen outfielders Sydney Chambley and Jayda Kearney (All-Freshman Team) was honored by the SEC for their efforts in 2021. Junior Lacey Fincher and redshirt-sophomore Jaiden Fields each earned nods from the NCFA as All-Region Team performers. As a team, Georgia concluded the season ranked 13th nationally with 1.46 home runs per game, knocking 83 total home runs.

In the abbreviated 2020 season, the Bulldogs hit .335, the third-best in the SEC, through 28 games. Freshman Kuma hit .438 on the season, one of the best in the league. Fellow rookie Sara Mosley knocked in 31 runs with nine doubles in 2020. Despite the shortened season, Georgia was top-three in the SEC in multiple team categories including slugging and on-base percentages, runs, hits, RBI, home runs, doubles, triples, total bases, walks drawn, and stolen bases. Nationally, Georgia ranked top-10 in scoring (7.64 runs per game), slugging (.591), on base percentage (.429), and walks (104). Georgia's .335 batting average finished 11th.

The 2019 season saw the end of Alyssa DiCarlo's career. Under Baldwin's mentorship, DiCarlo went down as one of the best hitters in Georgia softball history. DiCarlo shattered Georgia's career records for home runs, RBI, extra-base hits, and total bases while appearing in the top 10 in numerous other offensive categories. She earned All-America status for the second season in a row in 2019. DiCarlo was drafted as the fourth-overall pick in the NPF Draft to the Chicago Bandits. Freshman first baseman Lacey Fincher earned All-SEC honors for their efforts at the plate.

Following the 2019 season, Baldwin had the honor of working with the USA Softball U-19 team over the summer as an assistant coach. The U-19 WNT brought home the bronze medal at the USA Softball International Cup. USA concluded its summer by walking off Japan to win the 2019 World Baseball Softball Confederation (WBSC) U-19 Women's Softball World Cup. With the win, Team USA became the first team in history to win three consecutive U-19 World Cup Titles and has seven titles overall.

The 2018 season was one of the best offensive seasons for Georgia. The Bulldogs posted the third-best batting average in the country with a .333 clip. It was the second-straight season the Bulldogs won the SEC team batting title. Georgia ranked fourth in the NCAA with a .526 slugging percentage and 10th with a .404 on-base clip. Many Bulldogs shined in 2018 at the plate including leadoff hitter Cortni Emanuel (.431 average) who ranked second in the nation with 91 hits. DiCarlo blasted 21 home runs to rank sixth nationally while driving in a seventh-best 67 runs. Both Emanuel and DiCarlo were top-25 finalists for the USA Softball Player of the Year award and each earned NFCA All-American status. Emanuel was also named the recipient of the New Balance/NFCA Golden

Shoe Award, given to the most prolific base stealer in the country. Emanuel was the 23rd pick of the NPF Draft by the USSSA Pride, becoming the 13th Bulldog selected in the draft. The Bulldogs concluded the 2018 campaign by making their fourth program appearance at the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

The 2017 season saw the Bulldogs win the SEC team batting title with a .338 batting average, 22 points higher than second-place Tennessee. That figure ranked fifth-best in the country. Sisters Sydni and Cortni Emanuel concluded the season as top-four hitters in the conference, finishing with .436 and .426 batting averages respectively. The sisters' 2017 batting average rank fourth and fifth in Georgia's single-season top-10 list. Sydni became the latest ProDawg when she was drafted by the Akron Racers as the 16th-overall pick of the National Pro Fastpitch Draft. Cortni was named an NFCA All-American for the second-straight season in 2017.

In 2016, Georgia had its second-best batting average in school history, hitting .342 with eight Bulldogs holding a .300 or better average on its way to the program's third Women's College World Series appearance. After a tough offseason of individual work with Baldwin, many individuals put up stellar numbers. Tina Iosefa led the nation while breaking the SEC record with 87 RBI during the season, earning her NFCA All-America honors. DiCarlo was named to the All-SEC First Team as a freshman after hitting nine of her 11 home runs against SEC opponents and notching 63 RBI on the year, the most of any freshman in the NCAA.

In his first season back, the Bulldog offense exploded, ranking 13th in the nation with a .343 batting average. Georgia finished 11th nationally with 7.21 runs per game and 18th with a .420 on-base percentage. Baldwin guided two NFCA All-Americans in Alex Hugo and Cortni Emanuel, as Hugo was first in the SEC and 12th in the NCAA with 22 home runs while Emanuel was eighth nationally in stolen bases and top-100 in batting average. Nine staples to the Bulldog lineup posted batting averages of .330 or higher at the end of the 2015 season. Once the season concluded, six Bulldog batters were named NFCA All-Region while four made it to an All-SEC Team.

Before returning to Athens, Baldwin was an assistant coach at North Carolina. Baldwin's primary responsibilities included developing the team's hitters and infielders. In 2014, Baldwin coached four .300 hitters and had three players hit double-digit home runs. Under Baldwin's guidance, three Tar Heels were named to the All-ACC Team, including one first-team selection and two second-team selections. In his first season, he helped nine Tar Heels finish the season batting over .300 while six had slugging percentages over .500.

Prior to his first stint at Georgia as volunteer coach, Baldwin spent 14 years coaching Division I baseball. Baldwin was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State from 2006-08. Baldwin's first recruiting class at Michigan State matriculated a Freshman All-American and multiple draft picks. His second recruiting class was ranked the top recruiting class in the Big Ten and was ranked top 50 in the country by Baseball America. His third recruiting class also produced a Freshman All-American and became the class with the most wins in school history.

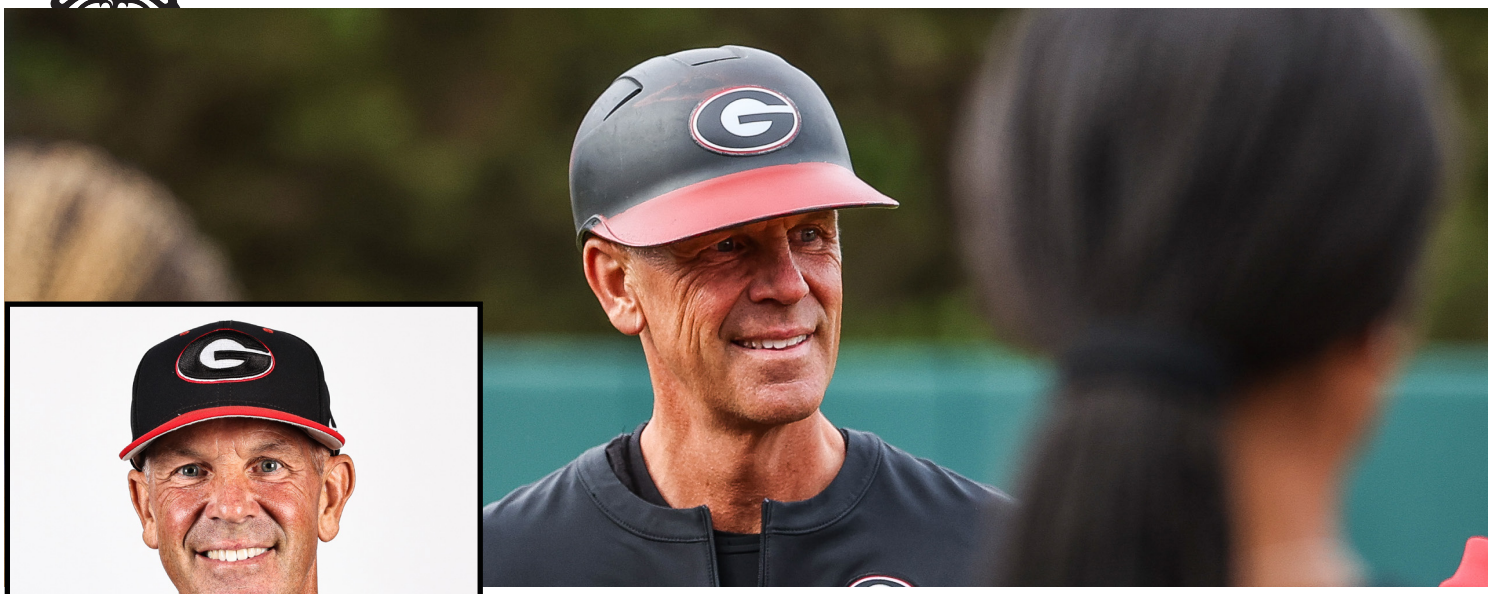
Before Michigan State, Baldwin was the assistant head baseball coach at Dartmouth College from 2003-05 after serving as the assistant coach from 1999-2003. At Dartmouth College, he was the recruiting coordinator, travel manager, eligibility coordinator, and worked with fundraising and alumni relations. Baldwin was the hitting and fielding coach, coordinated team defense, and was the third base coach, helping the team to Dartmouth's first Red Rolfe Division Titles in 2000, 2001, and 2004.

Baldwin was the assistant coach at Butler University from 1996-99, and was the head coach of the Decatur Blues, of the Central Illinois Collegiate League, in 1999. At Butler, Baldwin was the hitting coach, coached the infielders and catchers, and coordinated team defense. He helped lead the team to three MCC titles (1996, 1998, and 1999), which were the first in the history of the program.

A native of Bloomington, Indiana, Baldwin graduated from Butler in 1995 with a degree in finance. He was a four-year starter at catcher for Butler. In 1994, he served as a team captain for the Bulldogs and earned All-MCC honors. He is a member of the 1990's All-Decade Team.

In addition to coaching, Baldwin served as the operations director at Camp Weequahic from 2009-12.

Baldwin and his wife Suzanne have four children: Ella, Abby, Brady, and Katie.



J.T. D'AMICO

ASSISTANT COACH

YEAR AT UGA	First Season
DUTIES	Defense
ALMA MATER	Grand Canyon

@ SYD_FINCH

J.T. D'Amico comes to Athens with a resume including a 2009 NCAA National Championship, six Women's College World Series appearances, an NPF Cowles Cup Championship, five Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year awards, and five Pac-12 All-Defensive Team members.

D'Amico has spent the last 13 seasons on staff at Washington as the Huskies' defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. He coached three-time Defensive Player of the Year Sis Bates and current Olympians Jenn Salling (Canada) and Ali Aguilar (USA). As a team, Washington has committed fewer than 45 errors six times including a program record 24 in 2021, six fewer than the previous record. The Huskies finished first or second in fielding percentage in the Pac-12 eight times in D'Amico's tenure, finishing second in the nation in 2013.

He also served as the recruiting coordinator for the Huskies putting together top recruiting classes in recent years. The 2019 class included National Gatorade Player of the Year, and Georgia native, Kelley Lynch from East Coweta High School. The UW 2021 recruiting class includes arguably two of the top four prospects in the class by most national services.

In 2013, D'Amico added head coach of the USSSA Pride of the National Pro Fastpitch league to his resume, guiding the Pride to the NPF Cowles Cup Championship that season. The Pride featured NPF Defensive Player of the Year Ashley Charters that season.

Prior to Washington, he was the head baseball coach at Eastlake High School from 1998-2008. During his time as the head baseball coach at Eastlake, 10 of his players were drafted professionally while over 20 went on to play at the collegiate level. Three of his former players have reached the major leagues.

He also spent time as an associate scout with the Atlanta Braves for several years during his time at Eastlake.

D'Amico earned his bachelor of science degree in Applied Management from Grand Canyon University.

His younger brother Jeff was drafted in the second round of the 1993 Major League Baseball Draft. He made his MLB debut with the Kansas City Royals in 2000. He is now a golf pro in the Seattle area.

@ CHELSW20

Chelsea Wilkinson returns to Athens following a stint at NC State from 2019-21. Wilkinson will put on the Red and Black once again after wearing the G from 2013-16.

In her first season in Raleigh, Wilkinson helped lead NC State to 31 wins in the regular season and reach the ACC Championship semifinal for the first time since 2013.

Under Wilkinson's tutelage, Sydney Nester was one of only three ACC pitchers to reach 10 wins in the shortened 2020 season and was ranked a top-40 pitcher by D1Softball. Sam Gress became only the second freshman pitcher in program-history to throw a no-hitter, doing so in five-innings against North Carolina A&T that same season. In 2021, Nester (102) and Abby Trahan (98) finished 11th and 12th respectively, in the ACC in strikeouts. Trahan was responsible for 12 of the Pack's 26 wins last season.

Nester concluded her Wolf Pack career top 10 in several career categories including strikeouts per seven innings (7.06), wins (31), total strikeouts (344), opponent batting average (.227) and ERA (3.32).

Prior to NC State, she spent one season at South Carolina as a graduate assistant, helping the Gamecocks clinch their first NCAA Super Regional appearance since 2007.

Wilkinson's name can be found scattered all over the Georgia record books. She earned NFCA All-America status in 2014, was a three-time All-Southeast Region honoree, and was a four-time All-SEC performer. She was named the MVP of the SEC Tournament after guiding the Bulldogs to their lone tournament title in 2014 in Columbia, South Carolina.

She finished her player career ranked in top 10 categories including wins (97), appearances (173), games started (136), complete games (74), shutouts (35.5), saves (6), innings pitched (839.2), and strikeouts (897).

As a senior in 2016, Wilkinson led the Bulldogs to the Women's College World Series and was the 14th overall pick in the 2016 National Pro Fastpitch Draft.

She holds a Bachelor's degree in Public Heath, with a concentration in health promotion from the University of Georgia. Wilkinson earned her Masters in Public Health in 2019.

Chelsea married former Georgia Bulldog pitcher Robert Tyler in Oct. 2019. He was a first round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies in 2016 and was a member of the 2015 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team.

@ ALYSSADICARLO8

One of the best hitters in Georgia softball history, Alyssa DiCarlo returns to Athens as the Bulldogs' new volunteer assistant coach for the 2022 season. DiCarlo will assist coaching Georgia's hitters in her first collegiate coaching job.

DiCarlo played for Georgia from 2016-19. In those four seasons, she was a two-time All-American, three-time All-Southeast Region player, four-time All-SEC, and two-time USA Softball Player of the Year top 25 finalist.

She owns Georgia's career records in RBI (252), home runs (68), total bases (544), and extra-base hits (128). She also appears in top-10 categories including batting average (.378), games started (246), at bats (728), runs (196), hits (275), doubles (55), walks (121), and slugging (.747) and on base percentage (.470).

At the end of her senior season, DiCarlo became the 14th Bulldog to be drafted to the National Pro Fastpitch league. She was the fourth overall pick by the Chicago Bandits. She played the 2019 season with the Bandits.

DiCarlo graduated from UGA in 2019 in Mathematics.

She has a great understanding of hitting and our offense is going to benefit from working with her. I believe she is going to be one of the up-and-coming hitting coaches in our sport."

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
ROBIN CONFER

Robin Confer joined the Georgia softball staff prior to the 2019 season as the program's director of operations. This is Confer's second stint in Athens and with the Georgia Athletic Association. She first wore the Red & Black for nine seasons as an assistant soccer coach.

Prior to her current role, Confer was the head women's soccer coach from 2014-18 at North Florida. The 2017 season marked the program's best record since the 2011 season as UNF posted a 9-6-1 mark. During her tenure, Confer guided the Ospreys to four-consecutive ASUN Conference Tournament appearances, including the program's first home postseason contest since 2010 in her first year.

Confer came to UNF following a nine-year stint as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Georgia. During her tenure at Georgia, Confer helped develop a potent offensive attack that consistently outscored its opponents and produced players that broke a number of Bulldog offensive records. In addition, she was able to attract top-tier recruits to UGA resulting in nationally-ranked recruiting classes including a No. 12 rank for the 2013 class.

Prior to her time at UGA, Confer served as an assistant coach at Florida State helping guide the Seminoles to a 29-13-4 record during her tenure including the program's first College Cup appearance in 2003. Confer's coaching career also includes stops as an assistant coach at Mississippi State and Texas A&M. Her first collegiate coaching experience came as a volunteer assistant under legendary coach Anson Dorrance at her alma mater, North Carolina.

The 1997 National Player of the Year, Confer was a part of three national championships as a record-setting forward at the University of North Carolina. A four-year starter for the Tar Heels (1994-97), Confer helped UNC to national championships in 1994, 1996, and 1997. She was named National Player of the Year by Soccer News and SoccerBuzz as a senior, whi-+le also garnering Most Valuable Offensive Player of the NCAA Final Four in 1997. A first-team All American, Confer was a finalist for the Hermann Award, recognizing the nation's top collegiate soccer athlete. She finished her Carolina career ranked among the all-time scoring leaders finishing with 77 goals and 55 assists. Confer played in every game of her collegiate career and still holds an NCAA record having played in 107 games. Confer was also named to the Atlantic Coast Conference's (ACC) 50th Anniversary Women's Soccer team recognizing the league's Top 50 players. A former captain of the U.S. U-20 Youth National team, she made her Women's National Team debut on Jan. 18, 1996, against Ukraine and was a member of the pool from 1996-99, earning eight caps and one goal.

Confer earned her bachelor's degree in Exercise and Sports Science from North Carolina in 1998.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA PRESIDENT
JERE W. MOREHEAD

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia President on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, the University has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally, the University completed the most successful capital campaign in its history, raising more than $1.4 billion, and launched an Innovation District initiative to create UGA's campus of the future, where students and faculty partner with industry to generate ideas and solutions to continue the University's role as a powerful driver of economic development in Georgia. Since 2013, UGA has increased its research expenditures by 41% and has been ranked among the top five universities in the U.S. each year for research-based products reaching the marketplace. UGA now stands first nationally in this important ranking.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia Program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. UGA graduates are in demand: 91% of graduates in 2020 were employed or in graduate school within six months of graduation.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia since 1986 in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative posts, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export control to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

His external service currently includes serving as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee. He also serves as Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors, a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Committee, and a member of the NCAA Board of Governors. He is Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness to expand the role of American higher education in the global innovation economy. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, Georgia Research Alliance, University System of Georgia Foundation, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, and Emory University Candler School of Theology.

President Morehead has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award – UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence – the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education.

He holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
JOSH BROOKS

Josh Brooks was named J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Jan. 6, 2021, after serving 11 years at UGA, most recently as Interim Director of Athletics and Senior Deputy Director of Athletics.

Brooks returned to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics after serving as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15.

Prior to his tenures at Millsaps and ULM, he served in capacities at UGA as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14).

On January 20, 2021, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship that will support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift will create a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

During his time at UGA, Brooks worked closely with former Director of Athletics Greg McGarity overseeing internal and external for all athletic operations. He has served as the liaison with the Office of University Architects office on all athletic construction projects and with several campus departments as well as the president's office. His responsibilities at UGA have included overseeing the departments of facility support, graphics and design, and turf management.

He has been involved in the scheduling of future football games, as well as overseeing bowl game operations. In addition, his responsibilities included assisting with the development and management of facilities, new construction projects for the Athletic Association, and planning the 2013 Jason Aldean Concert in Sanford Stadium. Brooks has also served as the sport facilitator for football and men's and women's track and field and cross country.

During his time at Millsaps, Brooks revamped the Major game-day experience. He created the kid's zone, specialized concessions, and partnerships with youth sports leagues. Partnerships with the Jackson Public Schools, the Jackson Zoo, the National Guard and the Boy and Girl Scouts of America added to game days. This enhanced experience helped Brooks solicit over $100K in sponsorship opportunities.

Brooks also established a department-wide fundraising campaign that led to a 150 percent increase in Major-Club donations. Capping off this fundraising campaign was the creation of a standalone Hall of Fame event at the Capital Club and the Mary Ann Edge Golf Tournament held at Patrick Farms golf course.

The Majors saw great athletic success in Brooks' first year. The Majors enjoyed two SAA regular season championships, captured by the men's soccer team and the women's basketball team. The Millsaps' baseball team also earned a trip to the West Regional tournament. The student-athletes also shined in the classroom in Brooks' first year. Millsaps' student-athletes had an overall grade-point-average of 3.0 in the 2014-15 academic year. Over 130 Majors' earned Academic All-Conference honors.

While serving as director of football operations at the University of Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2004, and in 2007 ULM became bowl eligible for the first time in school history after beating Alabama. Brooks gained experience as a student at Louisiana State University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach. During his four years at LSU, the Tigers participated in the 2000 Peach Bowl, 2002 Sugar Bowl, and won the 2001 Southeastern Conference championship.

A native of Hammond, Louisiana, he graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his Master's degree in Sport Management from The University of Georgia ('14). He and his wife Lillie have twin sons Jackson and James born July 2009 and a third son Davis born March 2012.

BALDWIN ON the freshman class...

FAITH BARTH

"We are excited to have Faith join the Bulldog family. Faith has grown from the little girl that was a bat girl for our softball team to becoming one of the top hitters in Georgia. She is a lefty hitter that can drive the ball in the gap and over the fence. She is a fighter in the box and a versatile defensive player. She is a shortstop by trade but can play all the infield positions and could even compete for time in the outfield. Faith is a very good student and comes from a wonderful family. We are looking forward to seeing Faith in the Red and Black uniform."

LYNDI RAE DAVIS

"Lyndi Rae is one of the top players in the country. A catcher from Northwest Georgia, Lyndi Rae has a big arm behind the plate and solid receiving skills. What sets her apart though is her bat. She is a left-hand hitter that hits for high average and above-average power. She was named Georgia 3A State Player of the Year as a freshman in high school and hasn't looked back. She finished her senior year by hitting .600 with 15 homeruns! Lyndi Rae comes from a family full of athletes and coaches, so sports certainly run in her blood. We couldn't be more excited to welcome Lyndi Rae to the Bulldog softball family."

KYLIE MACY

"Kylie ranks as one of the top pitchers in the country. She has incredible spin on her pitches and has many qualities reminiscent of former Bulldog great Chelsea Wilkinson. She physically continues to get stronger and stronger and her success in the circle reflects that growth. Kylie has experienced great success at both the high school and elite travel ball level and we look forward to that continuing while she wears the Red and Black. She is a tremendous student and comes from a family full of loyal UGA fans. We are thrilled that Kylie chose to be a Bulldog and look forward to great things from her during time in Athens."

REBECCA MUH

"Rebecca is a competitor! She is a pitcher that has improved each and every year and yet still has her best days ahead of her. She is a power pitcher that goes after hitters. While we have been following Rex for a number of years, she really burst onto the scene last summer and had a great summer playing elite travel ball. It was great to see her really come into her own and we look forward great things from her here in Athens. She is another tremendous student that comes from a Bulldog family, with her father have been a decorated pitcher for the Red and Black. We are excited to welcome Rebecca to the Bulldog Softball family."

SYDNEY OSADA

"Sydney is a left-handed pitcher that really knows how to pitch. We have seen her pitch her best and really compete in the big games. At 6-0, she is a physical presence in the circle and as she continues to get stronger, she is going to keep getting better. We are excited about what Syd can add to our pitching staff and look forward to her doing great things in a Red and Black uniform. Sydney comes from a very supportive family and we are excited to welcome her to Athens."

THE CIRCLE OF HONOR

NICOLE BARBER was Georgia softball's first Circle of Honor inductee, the highest honor bestowed upon a student-athlete at Georgia. Barber was the Bulldogs' centerfielder from 2001-04. She still holds the NCAA record with 257 career stolen bases including swiping 73-consecutive bags, also an NCAA record. Her 379 career hits is an SEC record while ranking in the top 10 in batting average, triples, runs, and fielding percentage as a centerfielder. She was three-time All-American and four-time All-SEC honoree for Georgia. Barber played in 278 games of her career, going 204-74 as a Bulldog with 70 SEC wins.

KIM WENDLAND won All-America honors in each of her last three years as a Bulldog (2003-05). She remains one of just four players in UGA history to earn such an honor three times. She's also the only player in program history to earn two outstanding honors: SEC Player of the Year and first-team All-SEC four consecutive years. Wendland's 313 career hits, 233 runs batted in, and 64 doubles still rank among the top five in school history. Her 1,403 putouts at first base rank second in program history. As a freshman in 2002, Wendland helped lead Georgia to its first-ever NCAA Regional.

KASI CARROLL
2004-07

Kasi Carroll is Georgia softball's lone multi-time CoSIDA First Team Academic All-America award winner. Carroll also earned Academic All-District three times and is softball's lone Joel Eaves Award winner, given the male and female student-athletes with the highest GPA upon entering the fall semester of his or her senior year, based on academic hour rather than eligibility. Additionally, a student-athlete must have earned at least two varsity letters to be eligible for the award. She was also a 2006 All-SEC performer in the circle.

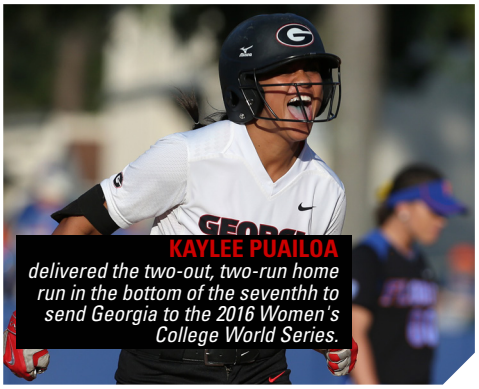
TAYLOR SCHLOPY
2009 WCWS All-Tournament Team

ALISA GOLER
2009 WCWS All-Tournament Team

The 2016 team walked off at back-to-back Champion #1 Florida to punch its ticket to the WCWS.

Georgia softball made its fourth trip to Oklahoma City in 2018. The season prior, Georgia had finished last in the SEC and didn't qualify for the conference tournament.

The unseeded 2021 WCWS team swept its way to OKC, taking down #13 Duke twice and shutting out #4 Florida in back-to-back games on the road in the Supers.



KAYLEE PUAILOA
delivered the two-out, two-run home run in the bottom of the seventhh to send Georgia to the 2016 Women's College World Series.

ALYSSA DICARLO
hit .750 with five home runs in the 2018 NCAA Tournament run.

MARY WILSON AVANT
shut out #4 Florida in back-to-back games of the 2021 Super Regional.
